Brief Contents
Revised Spring 2008

Preface

Part I  Orientation and Overview
  Chapter 1  Getting Started: Preparing Your First Speech
  Chapter 2  Public Speaking as a Communication Process
  Chapter 3  The Process of Effective Listening

Part II  Principles of General and Informative Speaking
  Chapter 4  Topic Selection and the Impulse to Speak
  Chapter 5  Understanding Audiences: Involvements and Expectations
  Chapter 6  Developmental Material for Speeches
  Chapter 7  Organizing Informative Speeches
  Chapter 8  Introductions, Conclusions, and Transitions
  Chapter 9  Projecting Your Ideas Visually
  Chapter 10  Preparing Diagnostic and Presentation Outlines
  Chapter 11  Delivery: Bringing Your Speech to Life through Voice and Movement
  Chapter 12  Language and Symbolic Construction: Bringing Your Speech to Life through Words and Phrases

Part III  Principles of Persuasive Speaking
  Chapter 13  Introduction to Persuasive Speaking
  Chapter 14  Constructing Persuasive Arguments: Patterns of Organization and Reasoning
  Chapter 15  Adapting Rational Arguments to the Psychology of Audiences

Appendices
  Appendix A: Researching Your Speech
  Appendix B: Explaining Processes

Appendix C: Speeches for Special Occasions
Appendix D: Sample Speeches for Analysis and Discussion

Index